George Finnegan,

Because of the time that is require from the job I currently have and the uncertainty of how long I will be out of town, and the current time requirements of Resource Design Solutions, Inc. I here by tender my resignation of my office in RDS. As per our agreement, I also return any and all interest that I have in RDS to you.

This has come as a hard decision to make, and I wish you all the best in getting this going. Although I will not be an officer or a shareholder, I still offer you my assistance as time will allow.

I will contact Steve Christensen with a copy of this letter and have him draft a complete exchange of stock for the debt and indemnification and will provide the necessary deeds to transfer my interest to you.

I wish you the best of the world and success in the development of the Quarry. I regret not being able to hold on to the end.

Joseph Dunlop

Acceptance:  Pres.
George Finnegan President
